

Only Two More Days For Trade Week Shopping!

Summer Rompers For the Kiddies

Both boys' and girls'. They can all wear the same rompers, and they can all make mud pies, roll around in the yard, and not alone get the rompers dirty but themselves—it will do both good. It makes them good, healthy, strong children.

Only 50 cents

The Homer Fitts Company

People of Barre and the surrounding towns have been quick to see the advantages of this big sale. True, it is near the end, but there are still an endless quantity of the specials that we put out for this sale, to say nothing of our regular stock which, under present market conditions, we are selling at from 15 to 30 per cent. under actual value.

We anticipate that these last two days will be the biggest of the sale so if you have not already visited this store during this sale it is for your interest to do so before Saturday night.

Wash Voiles

A Splendid Showing of Attractive Designs

You will find little difficulty in selecting a pretty design as the choice is broad enough to satisfy every taste. The designs include stripes, small and large figures and the newer color effects now in great demand.

ONE LOT 25c and 35c VALUES, in STRIPED and FLOWERED VOILES, special, per yard 19c

ONE LOT 32-INCH MERCERIZED TISSUE, special priced, per yard 15c

Special Sale of Ladies' White Skirts, each, 98c

Just the thing for summer wear with the new middy blouses. They come in both plain and belted models; special for this sale, each, at 98c

BARRE DAILY TIMES

THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1916.

The Weather

Fair to-night and Friday; fresh west winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Charles Chaplin in "The Star Boarder" at the Bijou to-day.—adv.

Men's elk work shoes at Shea's Shoe Store this week, $1.80 per pair.

Mrs. J. E. Emory of Washington was in town yesterday as a shopper.

F. A. Ordway of Chelsea was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. M. Scott of Trenton, N. J., formerly of this city, is visiting friends here.

Herbert Farnham of Waterbury was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

C. C. Graves and William Park of Waterbury were in the city yesterday on a business trip.

Miss Hazel Carpenter returned to her home in East Brookfield last evening, after attending the Perry-Skinner wedding.

Miss Blanch Townsend of Chelsea was in the city yesterday visiting her uncle, Charles B. Townsend, of Washington street.

The monthly meeting of the Bonaccord Football club will be held in the pavilion to-night at 7:30. Picnic committee please attend.

Mrs. Emily Henry of Jefferson street has gone to Marshfield, where she will spend a week or two visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. B. Barnhill, who has been visiting friends in the city for a few weeks, returned to her home in Boston yesterday afternoon.

Among the shoppers in the city yesterday from Northfield were Mrs. Thomas Oniel, Mrs. Edward Houston and her daughter, Doris.

Paul Stevens of St. Johnsbury is in the city attending the Goddard commencement. Mr. Stevens is a member of the 1914 class.

Miss Grace Hamblett of North Montpelier arrived in the city yesterday to attend the Goddard commencement the remainder of the week.

Mrs. W. A. Shields and son, Lawrence, went last evening to Fredericksburg, Va., called there by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. A. Atkins.

L. C. Cass, who has been in the city for several days on a business and pleasure trip combined, left yesterday for his home in Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

A fast game at I. A. C. field Saturday at 3 p. m. St. Albans vs. I. A. C. Several new and fast men in I. A. C. lineup, so come and see a real game.—adv.

Pre-inventory sale from June 19 to 23; reduction sale on all kinds of remnants of cotton, woolen and silk goods. The Little Dry Goods Store, Cottage street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wyman, Mrs. Margaret Wark and Miss Mildred Wark of Hardwick came last night to attend the commencement exercises at Goddard seminary.

Ladies of the Congregational church: We want all the hats and magazines we can get in the next 10 days. For particulars call Mrs. Phelps, 57, or Mrs. Jones, 144-12.

Auction sale to-morrow for L. A. Farrington, Cabot village, 18 head of registered and high grade Holstein cattle, lots of farm tools and household furniture. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

Peter Michael, who has completed his duties at the Tassie bakery on Granite street, returned this morning to Burlington, where he will spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Carrie Eaton of Randolph arrived in the city yesterday to attend the graduation exercises at Goddard seminary, her cousin, Miss Evelyn Eaton, being a member of the graduating class.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newton of Ferrisburg arrived in the city yesterday to attend the graduation exercises at the seminary the remainder of the week. Mr. Newton is a member of the class of 1908.

Forrest Tibets, who has been fireman for the past two years in the St. Albans fire department, left yesterday for Lowell, Mass., where he will visit a day or so with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Kelly, before going to her home in Worcester, Mass.

Glain M. Lovell, who has been attending Goddard seminary for the past year, has completed his duties in the school and returned to his home in Springfield yesterday, where he will spend the summer vacation with his people.

Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Brigham and their daughter, Miss Bernice, arrived in the city last evening from Westboro, Mass., to attend the commencement exercises at Goddard seminary, where their daughter, Miss Violet L. Brigham, is to be graduated this week.

George Younis, who has been employed as shipping clerk at the Vermont Fruit company for the past few months, completed his duties there yesterday, going to Burlington, where he will manage his brother's store, while his brother is in service with the Vermont militia.

Remember, we can furnish you with all the best grades of coal, both hard and soft, and having bought the Arthur Martin wood business, have a large supply of all kinds of the very best dry, hard and soft wood. Telephone 490 and let Calder & Richardson fill your next order and judge for yourself.

Through the kindness of the city council, the civic department of the Barre Woman's club has been given permission to use the lower floor of the Church street school building for their first annual flower exhibition. A canvas of some of the best gardeners, there being about a million dollars' worth of plants, is to be shown.

The case of Walker and Pratt Manufacturing company of Boston vs. C. D. Wheelock of Montpelier, to recover $3000 was filed to-day with the county clerk. Fred L. Baird is attorney for the plaintiff.

A report was made yesterday by J. Ward Carver of Barre, master, to Judge Fred M. Butler, chancellor, in the case of Guy C. Holliday vs. American Quarries company, which operated talc mines in Moretown. The Dorchester company was trustee for the bond holder, there being about a million dollars' worth of bonds. The property was sold by the trustees in bankruptcy to the American Quarries company for $70,000, of which $8,000 was paid. The master reported that the property, from evidence gathered, was worth about $15,000. The proceedings were brought to wind up the affairs of the company, the state being a party to the suit to collect corporation taxes. The master was unable to find enough evidence to decide whether or not the judgments were valid.

Don't miss the chicken-pie supper at St. Sylvester's church to-night: 25c a plate. Come and have a good time.

FARM RECEIVER APPOINTED.

On Petition of a Montpelier Bank—A $300 Suit Filed.

Chancellor Fred M. Butler in Washington court yesterday issued an order in the case of Capital Savings Bank and Trust company vs. Frank L. and Della E. Farr, appointed Frank H. Tracy receiver with authority to carry on the Farr farm. Tracy and Deavitt sold the farm some time ago to the Farris, the bank holding notes. The orator claimed that the farm was not being properly carried on and asked for the appointment of a receiver. The receiver is not, however, to interfere with the occupancy of the house.

The case of Walker and Pratt Manufacturing company of Boston vs. C. D. Wheelock of Montpelier, to recover $3000 was filed to-day with the county clerk. Fred L. Baird is attorney for the plaintiff.

A report was made yesterday by J. Ward Carver of Barre, master, to Judge Fred M. Butler, chancellor, in the case of Guy C. Holliday vs. American Quarries company, which operated talc mines in Moretown. The Dorchester company was trustee for the bond holder, there being about a million dollars' worth of bonds. The property was sold by the trustees in bankruptcy to the American Quarries company for $70,000, of which $8,000 was paid. The master reported that the property, from evidence gathered, was worth about $15,000. The proceedings were brought to wind up the affairs of the company, the state being a party to the suit to collect corporation taxes. The master was unable to find enough evidence to decide whether or not the judgments were valid.

GRANITEVILLE.

Don't miss the chicken-pie supper at St. Sylvester's church to-night: 25c a plate. Come and have a good time.

Union Dry Goods Company

Just Two Days Left in Which to Take Advantage of the Special Prices and Discounts Quoted for

The Fare-Refunding Sale

The Special Trade Week so far has been a big success at this new store, and the values we are offering in high grade and desirable merchandise is surely being appreciated by Barre people, also by the many customers who come daily from the surrounding towns.

THIS IS THE STORE OF QUALITY AND GOOD SERVICE

A Great Clearance of Suits—$9.75 to $14.75

These are positively the greatest values in stylish Tailored Suits to be found anywhere in the city, every garment new and this season's styles. Regular values from $15.00 to $25.00.

Sale of Coats at $8.75

A big bargain in stylish, up-to-date Coats. Regular values to $12.50.

Silk Dresses 20 per cent. Off

Pretty styles in Taffeta, Crepe de Chine and Wool Dresses at 20 per cent. discount.

27-inch DRESS GINGHAMS, 12½¢ value, per yard 9c
36-inch STANDARD PERCALES, 12½¢ value, per yard 10c
GIRLS' WASH DRESSES, $1.00 value, each 77c
GOWNS AND COMBINATIONS, $1.00 and $1.25 value, each 87c

Note The Following

During the balance of this week, 10 PER CENT. DISCOUNT on All Wool Dress Goods, Laces, Embroideries, Ribbons, Notions, Muslin and Knit Underwear, Hosiery and Corsets.

This special discount alone is crowding the store daily. It is worth while coming for. DON'T FORGET ABOUT THE HOUR SALE daily, 10 to 11 a. m. Six yards of either Lonsdale Bleached or Lockwood 36-inch Unbleached Cotton for 49c (No 'phone or mail orders.)

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

191 North Main Street

Telephone 599-M

TALK OF THE TOWN

Children's tennis oxfords at Shea's Shoe Store merchants' week at 49c per pair.

Baseball, St. Albans vs. I. A. C. Saturday, 3 p. m., I. A. C. field. Good game.—adv.

Fred Eaton of Sioux City, former cashier of the National bank of Barre, was in town to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bardon of Waterbury were among the business visitors and shoppers in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woodcock of Plainfield visited at the home of Mrs. H. F. Cutler on Jefferson street yesterday.

Bob Leonard and Ella Hall in a three-reel drama, "The Winning of Miss Constance," and Charlie Chaplin in "The Star Boarder" at the Bijou.—adv.

Among the friends who are at the seminary to attend the commencement exercises is Miss Bessie Hubbard, who will see her sister, Miss Mamie Hubbard, receive her diploma this week.

Floyd Jenness, a 1914 graduate of Goddard seminary, is attending the commencement exercises this week at the seminary and visiting at the home of C. N. Kenyon of Merchant street.

Capt. F. A. Austin, formerly of Northfield and a graduate of Norwich university in the class of 1888, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Col. Austin is a brother of Mrs. W. A. Drew of this city.

The Gaiety club held a meeting at their rooms last evening and changed the date of their dance, which was to have been held at Dewey park the 27th of this month, to the 20th. This is the eleventh of a series of dances to be given by the club and the first one to be held at the park this summer. It is the second annual dance to be given by the Gaiety club at the park.

WATERBURY

Mrs. Mertie Huntley Palmer Elected Town Clerk, Succeeding Father.

At the special town meeting in Duxbury Tuesday, Mrs. Mertie Huntley Palmer was unanimously elected town clerk and treasurer. Mrs. Palmer has been reared in the town clerk's office, where her father, the late Judge Huntley, was serving his 45th year. For the past nine years Mrs. Palmer has been his legal assistant and is thoroughly familiar with the duties of the office. R. B. Deemer was elected trustee of public money and Arthur H. Graves received his appointment from the state board of health as health officer of Duxbury, both of these offices made vacant by the death of E. W. Huntley.

The usual large crowd gathered at the Hayden home in Duxbury yesterday for the annual picnic of the ladies' aid of the Methodist church. Among the many dishes served were butternut pie, butter cakes, butternut ice cream and butternut candy. Seventeen cupsful of butternut meats from nuts raised on the farm were used. Over 100 attended and, as usual, found the hospitality of that home adequate to a much larger number. Mrs. Hayden was assisted in the work by Mrs. A. C. Huntley, Mrs. Charles Cushman and Mrs. Ray Davis. Members of the ladies' aid assisted in the serving.

Mrs. Versil Watson Morgan of Bristol is a guest of Mrs. Richard Demeritt of Main street.

Miss Pauline Moody goes to Boston this week to be the guest for sometime of relatives.

Special communication of Granite Lodge, No. 33, F. and A. M., Friday, June 23, at 7:30 p. m. Work, E. A. degree. For order W. M.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY
WANTED—A waitress at Baltimore Lunch Room. Apply at once.

FOR SALE—A 5-passenger Maxwell car in excellent condition at a reasonable price. Inquire of Mrs. O. N. Canton, 25 Maple avenue, or 'phone 445-W.

FOR SALE—1915 model, 2-speed Indian motorcycle, in first-class condition; will sell at a reasonable price. Inquire of Peter Glavin, 91 Smith street, or at Phelps' store.

MONTPELIER

John Dobbs Elected Manager of Ball Team in Proposed State League.

John F. Dobbs was elected manager of the baseball team which will represent Montpelier in a state league or independently this summer at a meeting held last evening in the city court room. Other officers elected were Ned A. Harris, vice-president; C. DeF. Bancroft, jr., secretary; Charles Scott, Harry Hull, Edwin S. Meigs, David Spicer, Harold Pape, John F. Dobbs, advertising and sales committee.

The Italian A. C. of Barre was represented at the meeting and joined with Montpelier in expressing the hope that a league will be formed. Later T. B. Wright of Burlington was called and a meeting of representatives of Middlebury, Rutland, Burlington, Barre and Montpelier and Plattsburg was called for Friday night at 7:30 o'clock to formulate plans for a league. St. Johnsbury will also be asked to send a representative to the meeting.

Manager Dobbs has written a half dozen ball players and a fast team will be had for the games to be played July 1 and 4 with the Italian A. C. Tickets good for four games have been printed and will be placed on sale to-night and it is confidently expected that $1,000 will be derived from the sale of tickets, the money to be used to start the season.

First meetings of creditors in the bankrupt estate of Alfred Bilodeau of Williamstown and Joseph H. Hero of Northfield Falls will be held the first of July. Hero, a laborer, has debts of $674.18 and assets of $29.83, $1400 being claimed exempt. Bilodeau, a quarryman, has assets of $150 and his liabilities amount to $423.24.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pratt of Proctor returned this morning to their home after a brief visit in the city with the former's father.

Mrs. C. A. Eastman left this forenoon for Providence, R. I., where she will make an indefinite visit with relatives.

Two cases men's dress shoes, special this week at $2.19 per pair. Shea's Shoe Store.

Fare-Refunding Sale

NOTICE TO ALL OUR CITY CUSTOMERS—We wish to call the attention of all our city customers to the fact that

10 Per Cent. Discount Will Be the Slogan During the Big Trade Week at This Busy Union Store

Complete stocks of Clothing, Men's Furnishings, Shoes, Hats, etc. The special saving of 10 per cent. is worthy of your attention.

Union Clothing Co.

Opposite Depot Square

'Phone 599-M

Fare-Refunding Week

Adler-Rochester Clothing
Shuman Clothing
Hickey-Freeman Clothing
Widow Jones Clothing
Stetson Hats
Lamson & Hubbard Hats and Caps
Cluett Shirts
Hathaway Shirts
Princely Shirts
Sterling Sweaters
K. and E. Blouses
Munsing Union Suits

These lines should appeal to you. We are making attractive prices on many lines.

The Frank McWhorter Co.

Your Front Door

Gives the first impression of your home. A Corbin Unit Lock Set creates a favorable feeling and indicates comfort and good taste within. Burglar-proof and time-proof. Ornament in all schools of art. We sell it.

C. W. AVERILL & COMPANY
Telephone 500 Barre, Vermont